best joke 2019

„Oh!“

3.

„Oh no!“

4.

„Oh oh!“

5.

„Hoho!“

For a better understanding of this joke it might be helpful to describe the pictures.

Picture 1: A stickman is sitting at his desk on an office chair with a single leg and five wheels. His intention is to draw the best joke of 2019.

Picture 2: Something doesn't seem to be ok with his only working tool, the chair. The stickman kneels down and turns it upside down with both hands.

Picture 3: There is no connection between the leg and the seat. The stickman holds the seat of his chair in the one hand and the leg with the five wheels in the other hand. This picture is more abstract and kind of hard to describe, especially in english, because he's not a native speaker.

Picture 4: Zoom in the chair leg. It takes a moment to realize that it is in fact the stickman's arm and the five wheels are his fingers!

Picture 5: Zoom in the seat. Is this the stickman's mouth or anus? It's not quite clear, he crossed it out. (He's obviously lost interest in creating a punchline here bzw. gave up the whole „2019“ thing.)
